PHOTOGRAPHY
VISUAL COMMUNICATION

Bauer
As yet the educational plan is programmed like an open modular system consist of basic classes in the benchmark areas and endorsement courses.

History

Bauer is a vocational training school in the field of photography and visual communication.

The school represents the evolution of educational activities of Società Umanitaria, undertaken in 1904.

The photography courses, the first in Italy, were founded in 1954 and the visual communication courses in late 50’s with the direction of Albe Steiner.
Classes & organization

6 labs equipped with 25 Mac platform workstations provided with printers and scanners.

2 labs for shooting, development and printing optical analog bench cameras and large & medium format digital backs.

Lighting equipment with continuous light and with electronic flash; enlargers for different formats; accessories for the shooting lab.

1 labs for typesetting/letterpress

- Photography
- Graphic Design
- Motion Design
- Illustration
- Sound design
- Type Design
- Video mapping
- Videomaking
- Web Design
Collaborations & events

Bauer has always cooperated with the realities of Milan, Italian and European territory.
Among the most important:

Assolombarda Confindustria Milano - Association of undertakings, Milan

Fondazione Studio Museo Vico Magistretti - Milan

Hamburg Triennal Photography - Hamburg

Museo Fotografia Contemporanea - Cinisello Balsamo, Milan

Museo della Triennale - Milan

Museo Arte Urbana Aumentata - Milan

Ecole Supérieure des Beaux-Arts - Marseille

Currently Bauer is carrying out a photography editorial series in co-operation with RCS – Corriere della Sera, covered by a nondisclosure agreement so far.

The editorial series will have a nationwide distribution in Italy with a circulation of tens of thousands copies.
#architecture

07